

Besides IAA's exhibits and activities at the Jaycee Park Center for the Arts, other locations in Irving offer a feast of art exhibits and activities for your enjoyment and enrichment:

Irving Parks and Recreation Dept. (IPAR)

<http://www.ci.irving.tx.us/parks-and-recreation/classes.asp>

IPAR offers inexpensive classes on arts & crafts each season at seven recreation centers around Irving. Sponsor of yearly festival Irving Main Street Event. IPAR also maintains the Jaycee Park Center for the Arts, home of the Irving Art Association.

Irving Main Street Event

5001 North MacArthur Blvd, Irving, Tx 75074

Building J Level 2

University of Dallas Haggerty Art Gallery

<http://www.udallas.edu/offices/artgallery/>

The Haggerty Gallery, located in the Haggerty Arts Village, is the copper clad building at the corner of campus roads, Gorman Drive and Haggart Circle.

Irving Arts Center

<http://irvingartscenter.org/>

3333N. MacArthur Blvd.

A sculpture garden, plus exhibits in the Main Gallery, Focus Gallery, Dupree Theatre Lobby, and the Carpenter Lobby. IAA holds two shows there each year: Texas & Neighbors in the Main Gallery each spring, and Winners of the IAA Members Juried Show each summer. Plus workshops and activities for children.

Heritage Senior Center

<http://www.ci.irving.tx.us/heritage/index.asp>

200 S. Jefferson St.

T: (972) 721-2496

A permanent art collection, inexpensive classes on arts & crafts for seniors, plus Craft Bazaars several times a year.

National Scouting Museum

<http://www.bsamuseum.org/Exhibitions.aspx>

1329 W. Walnut Hill Lane, Irving, Texas 75038

Norman Rockwell and the Art of Scouting: For more than a century, the Boy Scouts have relied on illustrators to translate Scouting life into striking visual narratives. Featuring the work of Norman Rockwell, Joseph Christian Leyendecker, Walt Disney Studios, Howard Chandler Christy, Dean Cornwell, and Joseph Csatari, this new permanent installation takes a closer look at the artists behind America's largest youth organization
