

1st Exhibit by Quentin Ochs

We want to display your art!

The IAA, in an effort to offer members more opportunities to exhibit art in our gallery, has dedicated the West wall near the main entrance in the large gallery for an ongoing members only art exhibition on a two week rotation. Beginning Sunday, January 7th 2018, we will hang one or more pieces (depending on size) from one member artist. January 21st 2018 will be strike and retrieval for that IAA member artist, and hang the work of the next IAA member artist. We will continue to offer this exhibit space ongoing on a first come, first served basis. The purpose, beyond offering members more opportunities to display their art, is to offer more variety of art exhibited in the gallery and stimulate more attendance to the gallery, a win win for all involved. This is open to all active IAA members.

Tell friends, family, coworkers, and anyone and everyone when your art will be on display. Encourage everyone you know to come to the gallery.

The wall has an area of 48" X 84" to fill. Standard gallery restrictions apply. Work must not exceed 36" X 36" or weigh more than twenty pounds, and may not contain nudity. No other restrictions apply, and any number of pieces may be offered to fill the space. 2 Dimensional in any media, 3 Dimensional Wall Art, Fiber Art, and Photography all are acceptable. Art must be prepared for hanging, but please, no sawtooth hangers. Art will be numbered and you will be responsible for printing your catalog one sheet. You can print 4" X 6" index cards, or 8 1/2" X 11" single sheets and we will supply the holder. Make the catalog sheet as simple or as elaborate as you wish. We also have a wall holder available for your business cards.

Contact John Lee Hunter for more details, and to be put on the list of waiting member artists.
